Reg S-2/Misc/21/2007-Lic(P)

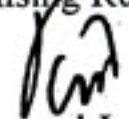

Dated February 29, 2012

PUBLIC NOTICE NO. 01/2012 (PREVENTIVE)
(Compliance with the provisions of Section 72 A of Custom Act, 1969)

It has been noticed with concern that freight forwarders issue House Bill of Lading to the consignors of export consignments which gives the names of actual consignors and consignees of such consignments and are in line with all other export related documents. However, these freight forwarders secure from the shipping agents Master Bill of Lading which shows the freight forwarders as consignors and their counterparts abroad as consignees of the consignments, making the Master Bill of Lading out of line with the House Bill of Lading and all other export related documents.

2. It has been observed that the Shipping Agents, while making the aforesaid changes of consignor and consignee in the Master Bill of Lading do not submit information to the concerned Collector as required under provisions of section 72 A (d) of the Custom Act, 1969.

3. It is, therefore, notified for the information of and compliance by all the concerned that henceforth shipping agents shall submit to the concerned Collector information about the aforesaid changes in the Master Bill of Lading and conduct their business in accordance with his directions, if any. In case, the concerned Collectorate reports at any time a breach of the aforesaid provision of law by any shipping agent, this Collectorate, being the licensing authority of shipping agents, will proceed against the delinquents under the Customs Act, 1969 and the Custom Agent Licensing Rules, 2001.
